

Courageously

Bounce Forwards During Uncertain Times

This presentation is designed to give you the courage, confidence and capability to lead yourself, your organisation, your colleagues and your remote teams during uncertain times. Learn how to better deal with our ever-changing business environment by embracing challenges so you can continuously bounce forwards, not backwards.

YOU WILL LEARN

1. Collaboration

How to achieve the impossible through connecting and partnering with the right people.

2. Comfort Zone

How stepping outside what has felt comfortable and safe will allow you to find new solutions to the new challenges you are currently experiencing.

3. Celebration

How to keep your momentum by acknowledging the small milestones along the way.

Everyone was spellbound by her extraordinary experiences

“ Heidi is an inspiring and engaging storyteller who has turned her extraordinary experiences into practical, clear strategies which we can all implement immediately into our corporate lives. Her stories are incredible and as I looked around the room, I could see that everyone was completely spellbound.
